

How dare even consider such a petition!! Not only is it an infringement on our First Amendment Rights, it's also very bad business practice to allow a select few, with polititions in their pockets, to dictate what we can can and can not listen to, rather than trying to improve their services !!